FOREWORD

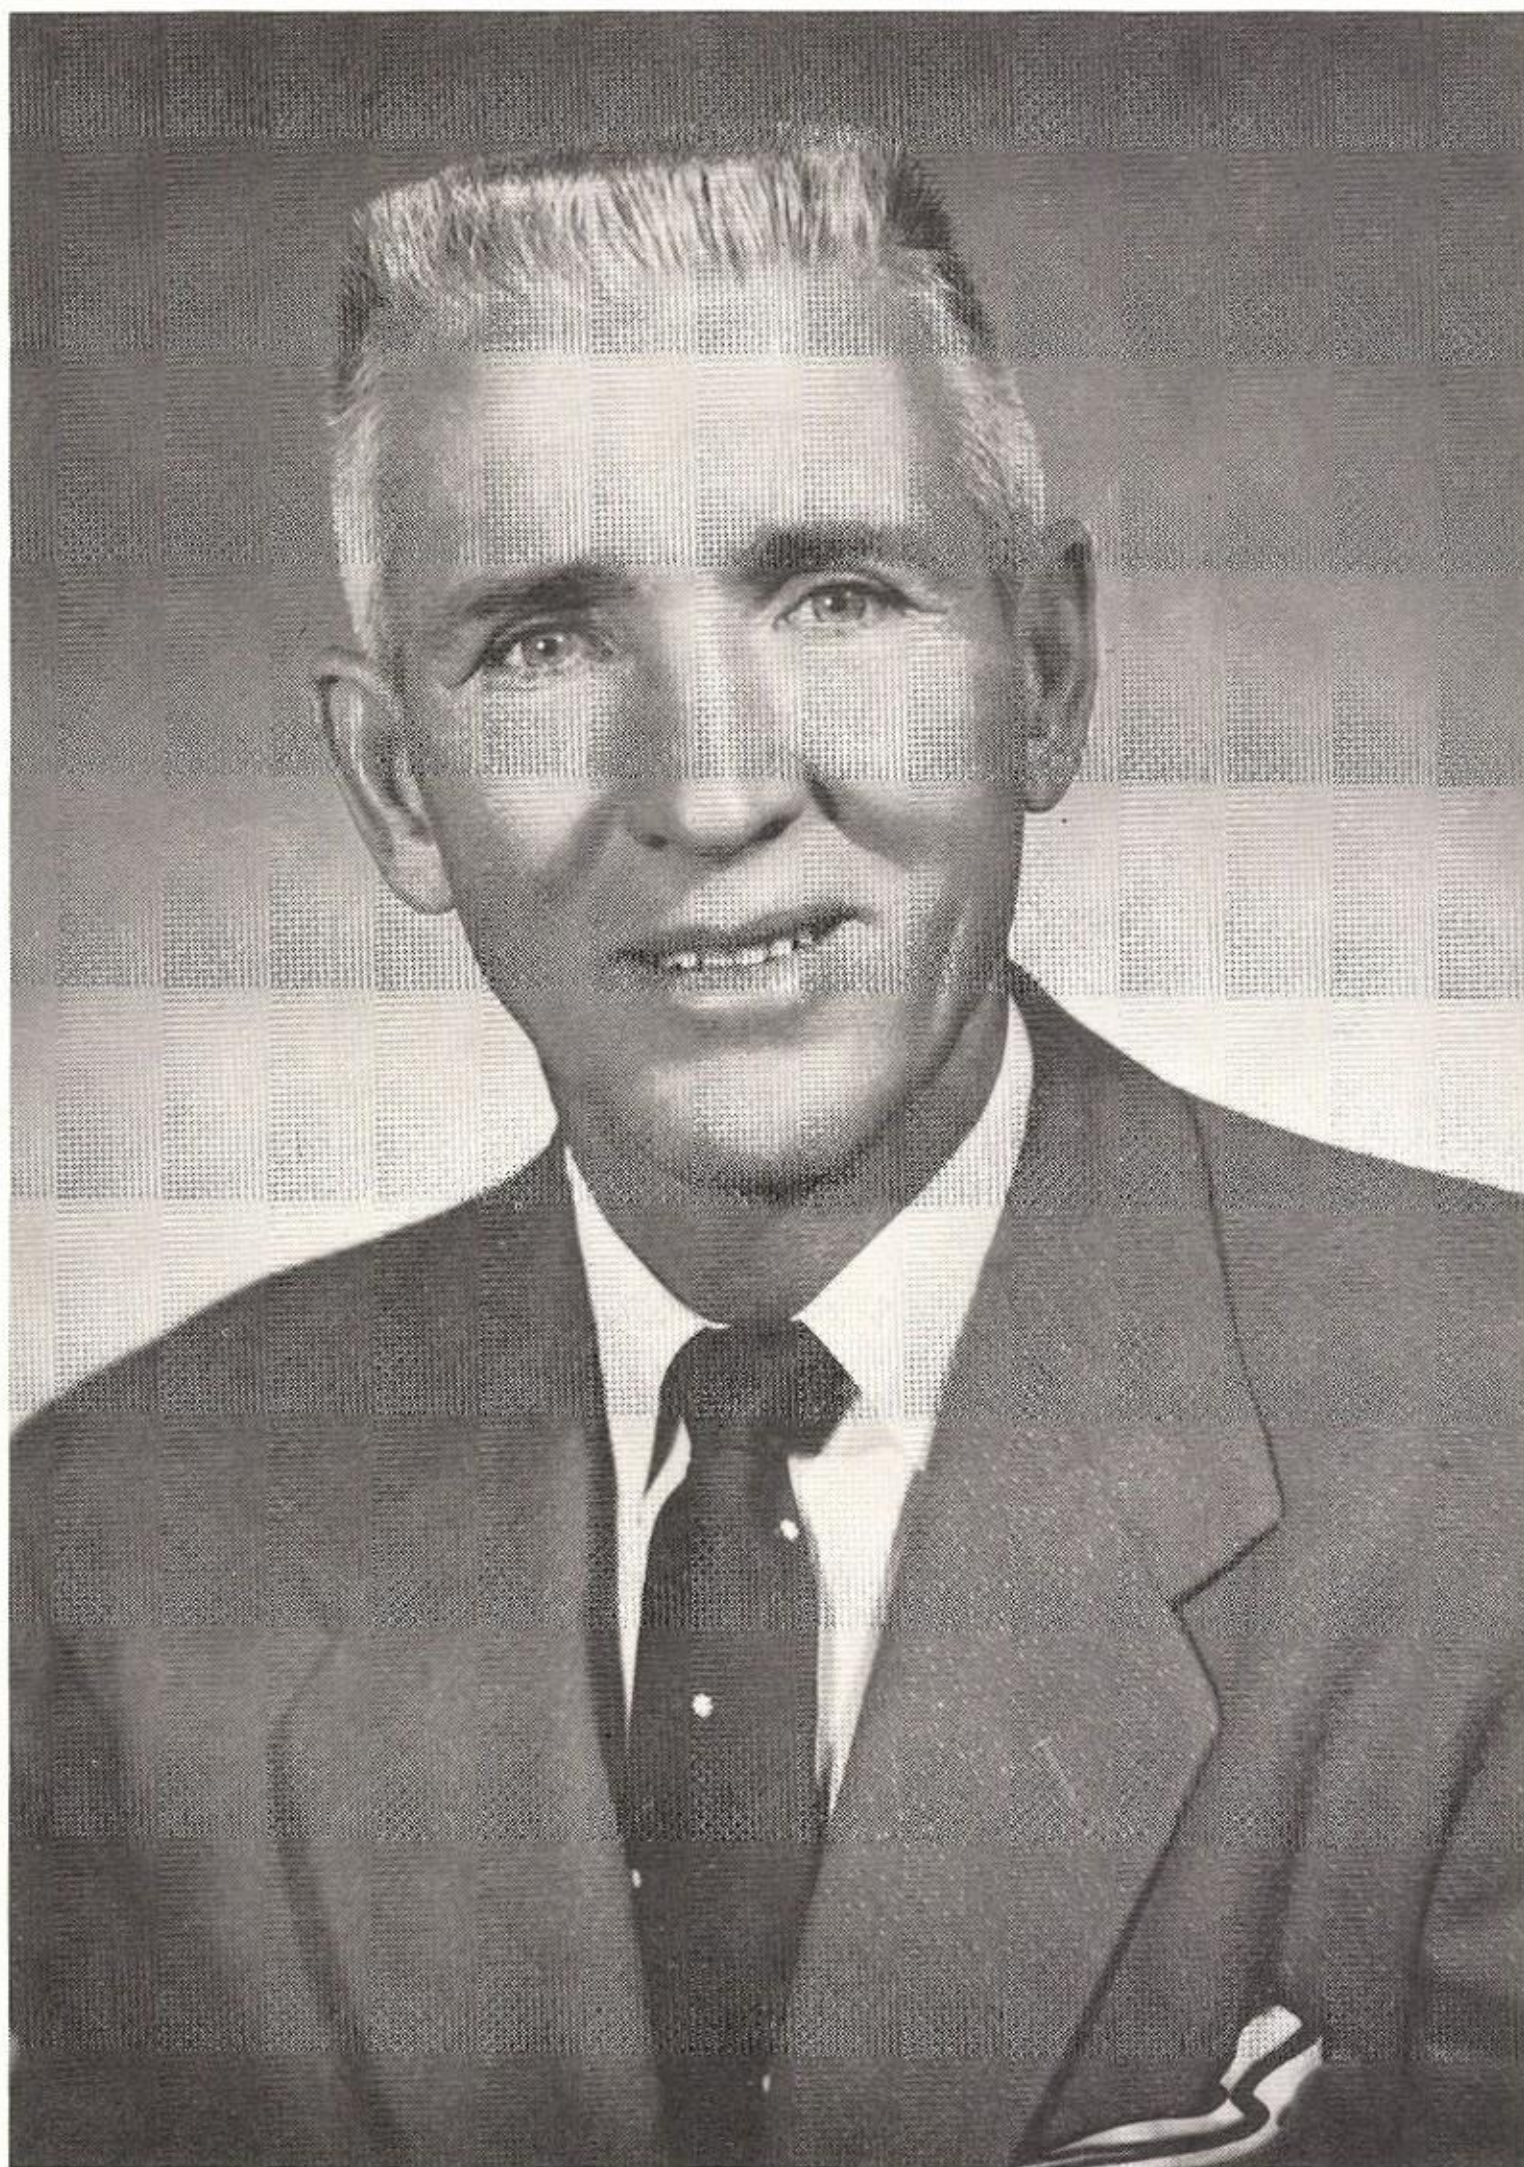

The Chieftain was ours for almost a year, and now it is yours.

We have worked hard, figured budgets, and told you nothing.

For the underclassmen, this is just a record of another school year. For the seniors, this is a record of their last high school days, days they will look back on in years to come with nostalgia.

We hope that the '57 Chieftain is representative of the '56-'57 school year at Lake View High School.

DEDICATION

Mr. Ray Glasscock

The 1957 Chieftain is dedicated to a most worthy person. He has won the love and respect of all who know him. In appreciation of his many hours of service to L. V. H. S., we proudly dedicate this book to Mr. Ray Glasscock.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

Congratulations Seniors and Lake View High School Student Body.

My brief association with you, the members of the senior class of 1957, has strengthened my conviction that the youth of today are capable of assuming citizenship responsibilities of our democracy. You have set examples which will inspire future students of Lake View High. Best wishes for happiness and success to each of you.

You, the members of the student body, deserve congratulations for your school spirit, high ideals and wholehearted cooperation in making Lake View High School one of which you and your community can be proud.

May the memories of your high school days always be pleasant and inspirational.

Sincerely,

Joe W. Cassel

PRINCIPAL

Congratulations and good wishes to the Senior Class and Student Body.

It is always a pleasure to say "thanks for a job well done." To the members of the annual staff, I offer my sincere congratulations for an outstanding yearbook.

To the Seniors, you have shown such marked ability and fine spirit that I know there are great things ahead for each of you.

To the entire student body, I say thanks for making the 1956-57 school year a great success.

Sincerely,

Lloyd V. Matson

ORGANIZATIONS

Student council officers from LEFT TO RIGHT are: secretary, Margie Eisenbeck, president, Dorothy Vowell, vice-president, Jerry Jackson, and treasurer, Nancy Guess.

The Student Council is composed of representatives from each class plus the officers. The council does an excellent job of governing the student body, besides promoting the activities of the students. A few of the activities that the council sponsors are Homecoming, Twirp Week, and Slave Day. The council also designed the victory flag and sponsored the school supplies table in the library. Another project added this year was the selling of the "Chief" pennants.

COUNCIL

MRS. GENEVA AARON

CHIEFTAIN

Shirley Lay, editor, and Vera King, co-editor, plan layouts, dig for new ideas, and spend many extra hours in an effort to meet deadlines.

An essential part of any annual staff is the business staff. The Chieftain business staff is composed of Jeannette Penn, business manager, and Pat Nichols, sales manager.

The annual staff is chosen each year to organize in a book a pictorial record of the events in a school year in such a way that it will make a memorable record for each student.

The staff has worked hard to make an annual that will bring back many happy memories of your high school days.

We hope that you enjoy the results of our efforts as much as we enjoyed our work.

POW WOW STAFF

Editorial staff includes Tilithi Huddleston, Editor Elaine Hiller, Shirley Hartman, Shirley Lay, and Jerry Jackson. They are shown above making preparations for another issue of the paper.

Sponsors Mrs. Frances Cassel and Miss Doris Howard are pictured above with photographer Bruce Kiser as they chose photographs to appear in an issue of the Pow Wow.

Doris King, art editor, Jody Strackbien, exchange editor, Charlene Proctor, feature editor, and Jean Bowers, sports editor tend to the jobs of writing copy, sending out exchange, and drawing cartoons.

One of the most important jobs on the Pow Wow is that of the typists. Jean Bowers, Virginia Brown, and Glen Nita Corley type all of the copy that appears in each issue.

No paper staff is complete without reporters. Louise Robinson takes notes while Dare Adams interviews Warren Canada.

The Pow Wow is published bi-monthly by the journalism department.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

Second Lake View High School Homecoming was launched at the Lake View Lion's Club, where the registration of exes was held. At 3:30 the exes adjourned to the Lake View High School auditorium. Latecomers registered at the auditorium, visited old teachers, and toured the buildings.

Adding to the excitement of Homecoming was the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. The five duchesses chosen were Dorothy Vowell, Frances Key, Billie Pearson, Jennie Henderson, and Daphene Keith.

Exes are registered in the breezeway by Nancy Guess and Pat Nichols, while Shirley Lay gives each ex a complimentary copy of the Pow Wow.

Ex-lettermen enjoyed visiting with the players and comparing opinions of teams and plays.

Leading the yells for the last game of the season are cheerleaders Linda Knieff, Virginia Brown, Margaret Brothers, Jennie Henderson, and Gwen Welch.

Homecoming Queen Dorothy Vowell is escorted by Eddie Kirkham, member of the Lake View Ex Association.

Homecoming Queen and her four duchesses leave the field via a '57 Ford convertible. Duchesses are Billie Pearson, Frances Key, Jennie Henderson, and Daphene Keith.

Homecoming dance was held in the high school gym. A large group of students and exes attended the dance, which was sponsored by the student council.

CORONATION

The high school royalty was presented in a star-studded ceremony, which was sponsored by the annual staff. Pictured from left to right are: Nancy Guess, Virginia Key, James Phillips, Pat Nichols, Danny Kinsley, Virginia Brown, Toby Yeager, Chuck Cotton, Jennie Henderson, Don Butts, Lyna Jan Bilbrey, Shirley Lay, Rex Wilson, Margaret Brothers, Clifford Bly, Donna Woodward, Jerry Simpson, and Warrene Canada. The theme for the coronation was a "shower of stars."

Mr. Ray Glasscock displays a surprised and pleased look as he accepts a plaque from Shirley Lay, Chieftain editor. The plaque was a token from the annual staff to commemorate the dedication of the 1957 Chieftain to Mr. Glasscock. The dedication was kept a secret until the ceremony, which was held December 4, during assembly.

"THE LITTLE DOG LAUGHED"

Glyn Stewart, the moody medical student, tells Sue Wyatt why he has decided to become a doctor.

Leana Williams and Don Box are quite interested in each other in spite of their fathers' rivalry.

Instead of applying psychology, J. L. Hyatt and Bill Phillips apply paint as a means of purging their emotions. Patti Roberts and Judy Strackbein try to stop the fight before more damage is done.

Robert Hicks explains the Melipius Umbellus Umbellus to Nancy Guess.

In an attempt to out-psychologize the psychologist, Patti Roberts, Don Box, and Bill Phillips do a "purge" dance.

Sue Wyatt administers the ink blot test and lays bare the "inner personalities" of her mother's guests. The guests are Tilithi Huddleston, Glennie Upshaw, Shirley Lay, Janet Mazur, and Pat Nichols.

Members of the stage crew are Kenneth Maier, James Woodfin, Toby Yeager, and Wendell Harrison.

Carl Baldwin is being led to the auction block by Jerry Jackson during the annual slave day.

SLAVE DAY

Toby Yeager, auctioneer, and Jerry Jackson, accept bids on Wendell Harrison.

Rex Wilson and Don Butts, student council members, haul in $39.75 net profit made on the slave sales which were held Wednesday, January 30, during assembly. All proceeds from the sale went into the student council fund. Virginia Brown brought in the most money as she was sold to Don Crooks & Company for the sum of $6.25.

Shorty McCall poses for bidders while being auctioned to Dody Smith. As in all sales, slave day featured a bargain. Ruth Woods and Mary Frances Robbins were sold for the price of one slave to Ronnie Cole. The teachers even got into the act as Miss VanDevere bought Carl Baldwin for her own private slave. Each slave had to dress as his master commanded him (within reason). Costumes varied from bathing suits to pajamas and western boots.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

January 25 was the date of the football banquet, which was held at Sitton's Cafeteria. George Sauer was the main speaker at the banquet. Parents of the team members were invited to attend the banquet.

Wendell Harrison, drum major, crowns Frances Key, Band Sweetheart for 1956-'57, as Mr. Clayton Dodd looks on. The banquet was held February 2, in the Cactus Hotel.

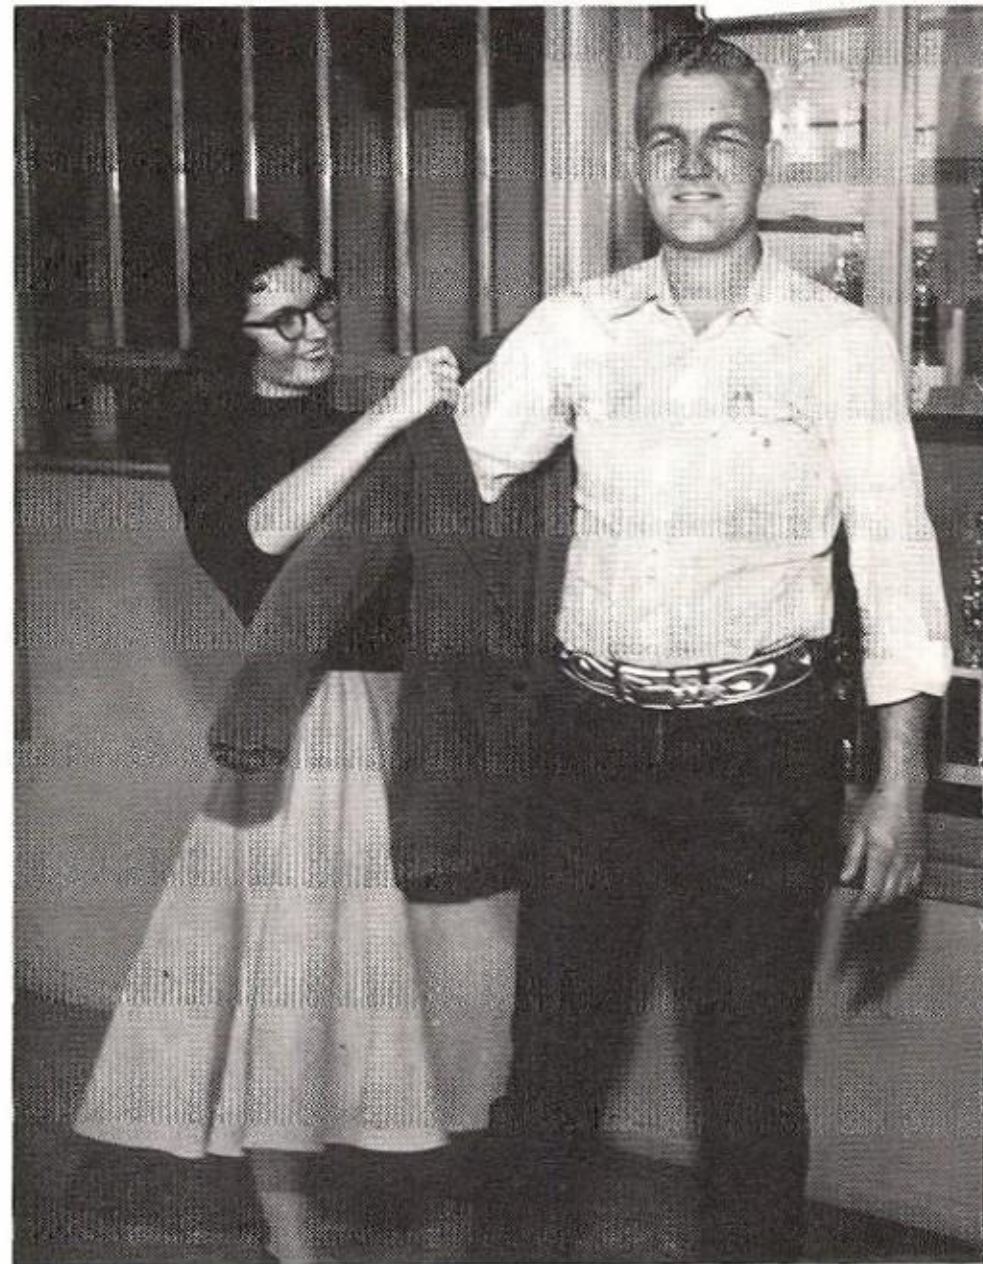

BAND BANQUET

One of the main features at the banquet was the crowning of the sweetheart and Mr. Rhythm. Identities of both people were kept a secret until the banquet. Pictured above is Dare Adams, Mr. Rhythm for 1956-57, who is being crowned by Frances Key.

TWIRP WEEK

Twirp Week, the week all boys look forward to, whether they will admit it or not, was December 3-8. During these five days, the boys relaxed and let the girls carry their books, buy them cokes, and help them with their coats. The family cars were put into use and those carefully saved coins were spent for cokes, shows, and gas.

Sadie Hawkins Day featured a race and Dogpatch costumes. The first girl to catch a man and drag him across the finish line was married in true Dogpatch fashion.

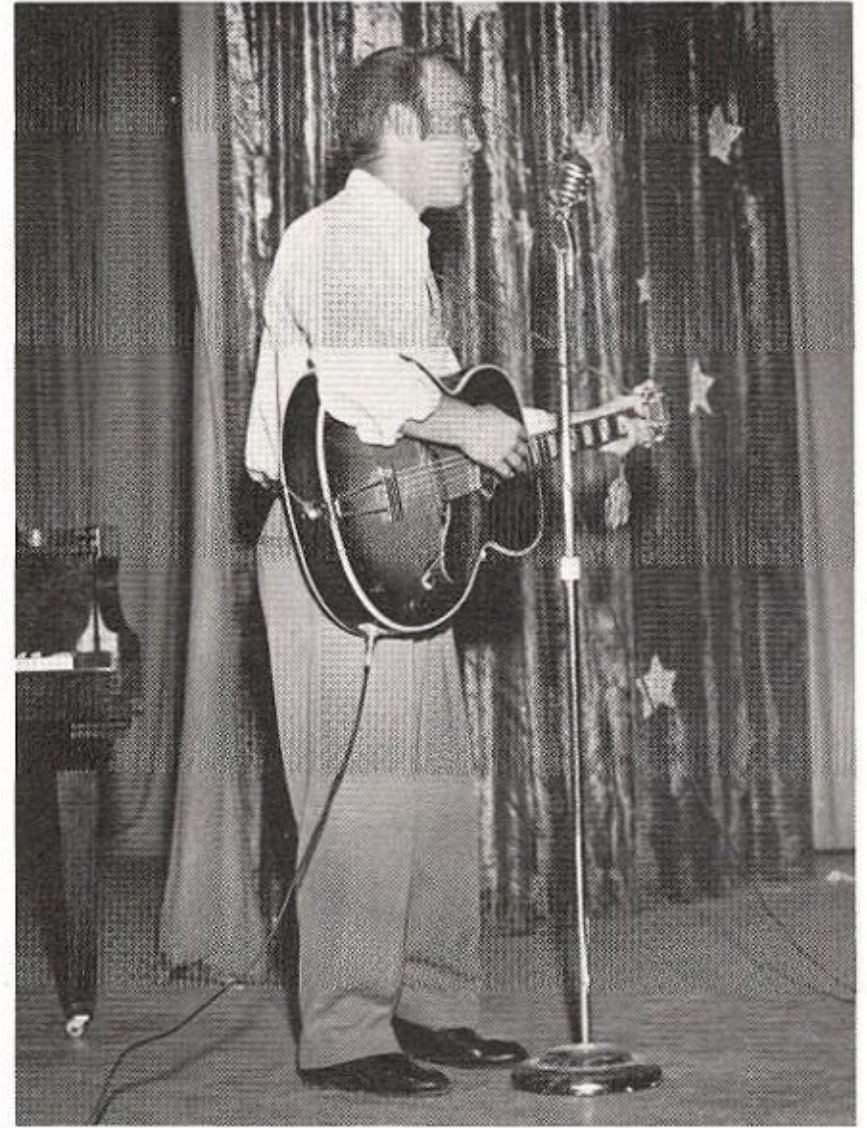

Twirp King and Queen were elected at the dance, December 7, which climaxed Twirp Week. Don Crooks and Donna Woodward were elected King and Queen. All Twirp Week festivities were sponsored by the student council.

TALENT SHOW

Master of Ceremonies for the show was Jerry Jackson. Student Council sponsored the show, which was held February 22.

Toby Yeager won first place with his rendition of "Dayo." Second place honors went to Linda Gail Newman of San Angelo High School.

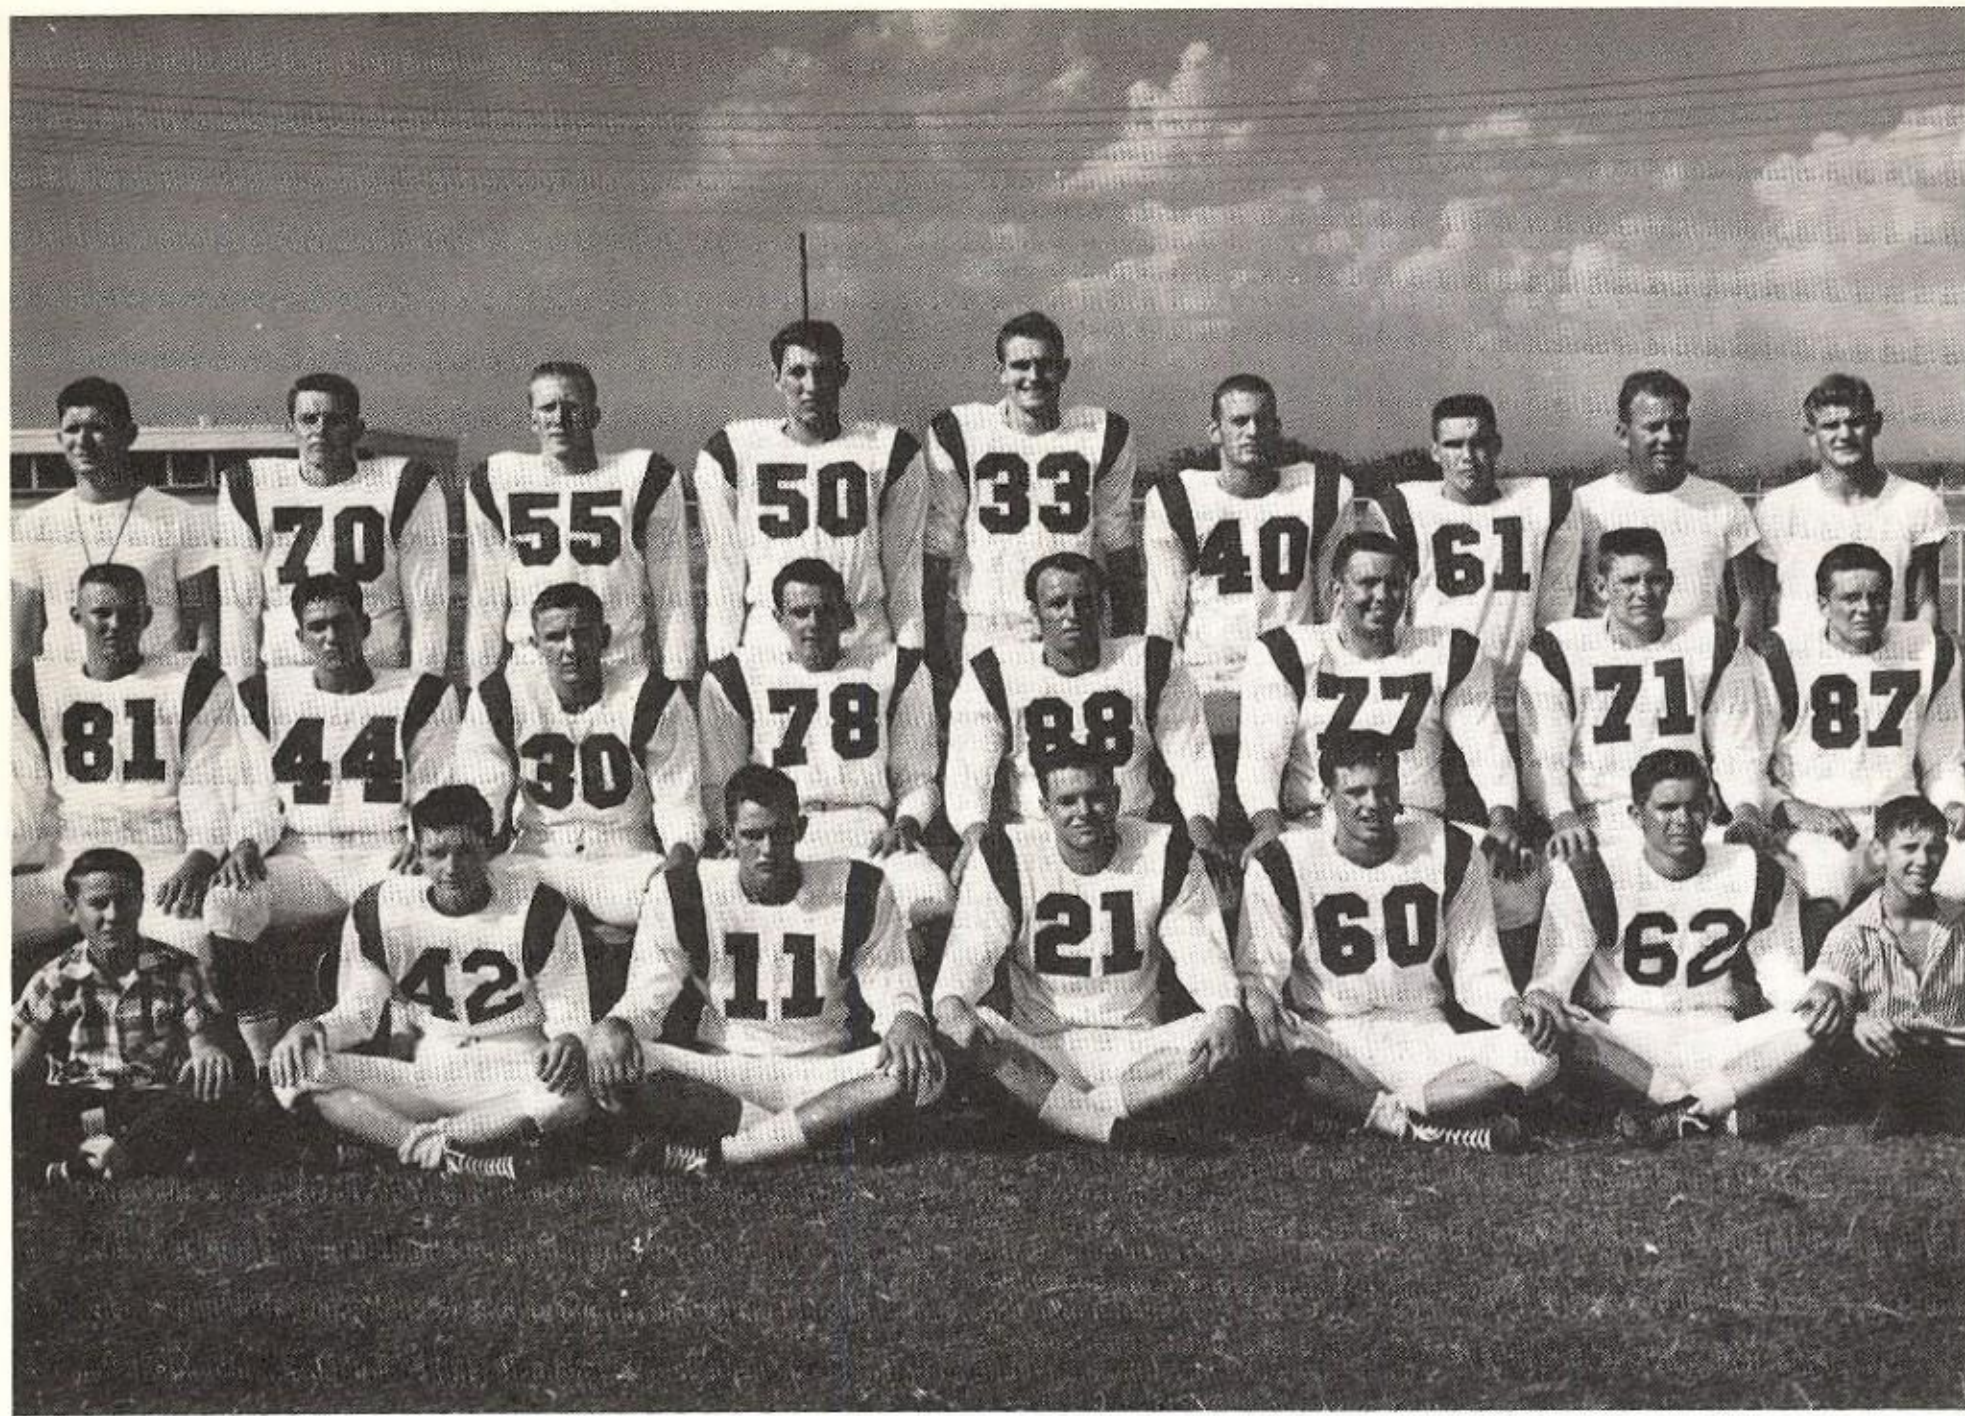

Competing for honors was a trio, composed of Martha Yeager, Karyon Woodward, and Nancy Guess. The trio won third place in the '55-'56 talent show. Rex Wilson was their accompanist. Third place winner was Dorothy Williams, Lake View Junior High Student.

ANDREWS 20
CHIEFS 0

The Mustangs invaded Chief Stadium, October 29, and picked up three TDs and two conversions in the second half. Chief offense was demobilized in the second half with the loss of Don Butts, Rex Wilson, and Jerry Lay, leaving Clifford Bly as the only letterman in the lineup. Andrews gained 349 yds. rushing to 128 for the Chiefs and the Chiefs passed for 50 yds. to 29 for the visitors.

SWEETWATER 44
CHIEFS 6

When the Mustangs moved into Chief Stadium October 26, they brought a smashing line, a herd of breakaway backs, and returned with a victory for the first District 3-AAA game. Chiefs only T D came in the second quarter with Bly carrying the ball. The Mustangs scored in each quarter. Chiefs were without the services of Rex Wilson, Don Butts saw little action, and Bly injured his ankle. Noel Dannheim turned in a fine defensive performance.

LAMESA 13
CHIEFS 6

Chiefs lost their second district game to Lamesa, November 2, in Chief Stadium. Tornadoes racked up the first six-pointer, but the extra point attempt failed. Chiefs tied up the game with Rex Wilson carrying the ball over the double stripe on a keeper. Lamesa tallied seven more points to make the score 13-6 at the half and the score remained unaltered at the end of the game. L. V. had good punting, averaging 37.7 yds. for three punts.

SNYDER 47
CHIEFS 0

Lake View was handed a crushing defeat when they traveled to Snyder, November 9. Clifford Bly and James Phillips directed the Chiefs against one of the best AAA defenses in the state.

Rex Wilson and Gary Warren carried for the Chiefs. Wilson getting 67 yds. in 15 carries and Warren 35 yds. in 9 carries. Lake View got 9 first downs to 21 for the Tigers.

Warren was outstanding on defense for the Chiefs.

CHIEFS 7
KERMIT 14

Visiting Kermit Yellow Jackets took home a non-district win, November 16.

Kermit made the only first half TD. Rex Wilson scored for the only Chief TD and carried over the extra point to knot the score at 7-7.

With nine minutes remaining in the game, the Jackets tallied their last TD and squelched the last Chief scoring threat.

Wilson displayed most of the running with 90 yds. in 23 carries. Chief passing attack connected on 7 of 13 attempts for 64 yds., with Clifford Bly at the helm.

Highlighting the Chief defense was Toby Yeager, Noel Dannheim, Gary Warren, and Burt Terrill.

CHIEFS 7
COLORADO CITY 19

Chiefs lost their final game, which was also homecoming for the Chiefs, to the Wolves in Chief Stadium.

Score at halftime was 7-0 with the Chiefs on top. Don Butts made the tally for the Chiefs and Rex Wilson racked up the extra point. All three of the TDs for the Wolves came in the last half.

Butts was the top ground-gainer with 68 yds, Rex Wilson was next with 43 yds, and Clifford Bly traveled for 20 yds. Gary Warren racked up 13 yds. for the Chiefs.

Season record for the Chiefs in their new district is 1 win, 1 tie, and 8 losses.
